

Use of Photographic and Video Images by Rikkyo School

Dear Parents,

Rikkyo School sometimes takes photographs or video images for publicity purposes. These may appear in our printed publications, on our website, on promotional DVDs, on TV programs and on social media sites (including youtube or facebook).

Please indicate below if you are happy to consent to your child's image being used in this way at the projects listed below.

You may withdraw your consent at any time in the future, but please be aware that it may only be possible to remove online images and the School cannot change printed or recorded materials once published.
